

Sample Timetable

English for Academic Purposes

The English for Academic Purposes course will help you improve your English and further develop your academic skills to pursue further education in Australia.

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Morning	Students can join optional Workshops or social activities through myEssentials .
12.45-1.45	Speaking Participate in a class discussion on study skills. Focus on grammar, supporting ideas and turn taking.	Speaking 2-3 min formal presentations about oneself. Pronunciation and intonation.	Speaking Participate in a group discussion. Giving and supporting opinions using complex language.	Writing Proof-reading strategies. Self-correcting paragraph (homework from previous day).	Writing Peer correction of homework. Paragraph structure review. Work on linking words and punctuation.
1.45-2.45	Listening Predict context and identify main ideas in a text.	Listening Identifying key words and transitions signals in lectures.	Listening Note taking techniques. Note taking practice.	Listening Note taking practice from lectures. Listening comprehension practice.	Grammar Sentence structure review. Different kinds of sentences. Linking words. Writing practice.
2.45-3.05	Break
3.05-4.05	Vocabulary and Reading Predict context and identify main ideas. Academic word list. Work on word families and spelling.	Grammar Different types of sentences. Writing complex sentences.	Reading Identifying main ideas in a text. Summarising, practice in groups and individually.	Reading Identifying main ideas in a text. Paraphrasing practice in groups and individually.	Reading Identifying main ideas. Note taking from reading.
4.05-5.05	Writing Essay structure analysis. Essay outlining.	Writing Planning and developing a paragraph in groups.	Writing Analysing essay tasks. Writing a thesis statement.	CALL* Developing on-line research skills. Evaluating sources. Sourcing and referencing.	Speaking Reporting opinions. Pronunciation and intonation practice.
Homework:	Create a study plan. Prepare presentation to introduce themselves to the class.	Start planning Assessment Task 1 - essay.	Paragraph writing focus on planning, development of ideas and self correction.	Paragraph writing. Planning Assessment Task 1.	Reading comprehension practice. Research for Assessment Task 1.

*CALL – Computer Assisted Language Learning

For more information see hawthornenglish.edu.au/courses/eap

CRICOS Course Code: 112462E