Hawthorn Melbourne

Sample Timetable

Intensive Academic Preparation (IAP)

The Intensive Academic Preparation program will help you to develop the skills necessary and to understand the conventions in a tertiary education context. This course is conducted both at Hawthorn-Melbourne and one day each week at the main campus of the University of Melbourne. The course uses learning tasks and assignments which simulate the standards of English required at university level.

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Morning	Students can join optional Workshops or social activities through myEssentials
12.45-1:45	Speaking Groups report progress of current research.	Vocabulary Academic vocabulary cloze – linking expressions.	Classes held at the University	Listening Take notes from a recorded text.	Grammar Transformational grammar – explanation and exercises.
4.45-2.45	Listening Take notes from a recorded text.	Listening Identifying main points from a spoken text, summarising.		Reading Topic related to listening – identify similarities and differences.	Writing Paraphrase extracts intended to be used in the assignment.
2.45-3.05	Break		of Melbourne	Lunch
3.05-4.05	Writing activity Paraphrase exercises.	Speaking Groups brainstorm ideas for research assignment.	Main Campus Locate and borrow texts/group speaking activity/individual consultations	Writing activity Summarizing exercises.	Reading/Listening Review format and strategies of a formal debate.
4.05-5.05	Reading/writing Critical analysis a journal article.	CALL* Teacher guided presentation of major essay outline and draft.		Reading/writing Critical analysis a journal article.	Speaking Debate
Homework:	Complete critical analysis of a journal article.	Complete outline of major essay for submission.		Research/prepare notes for debate.	Research and prepare upcoming assessment task.

*CALL – Computer Assisted Language Learning

^ILC – Independent Learning Centre

For more information see hawthornenglish.edu.au/courses/iap

CRICOS Course Code: 112463D.